

METROFOOD-PP CONNECTOR EVENT

Explore societal engagement in research and innovation!

METROFOOD-PP CONNECTOR EVENT

METROFOOD-RI is currently undertaking its Preparatory Phase under the H2020 funded METROFOOD-PP project and is seeking for collaboration & links with actors from different geographical regions in order to strengthen bi-directional partnerships and cooperation of mutual benefit. This virtual partnering & networking event intends to create a space for dialogue and multi-disciplinary exchange to explore opportunities for joint collaboration with METROFOOD-RI. The event's primary goal is to engage in an open dialogue session for getting to know each other, detect synergies, as well as to identify a common basis for future cooperation.

Join us... share your experiences and suggestions for synergies!

METROFOOD-RI - Infrastructure for Promoting Metrology in Food and Nutrition

It's a distributed Research Infrastructure aimed to promote scientific excellence in the field of food quality and safety. It provides high-quality metrology services in food & nutrition, comprising an important cross-section of highly interdisciplinary fields throughout the food value chain, including agrifood, sustainable development, food safety, quality, traceability, authenticity and transparency, circular bioeconomy, environmental safety, and human health (www.metrofood.eu).

To enhance scientific excellence in the field of quality & safety
